

Optional Vehicle Insurance Policy

June 1, 2024 | Sussex Insurance

About your policy

This is your Optional vehicle insurance policy. Please read it carefully so you know your rights and obligations and the rights and obligations of your insurance company.

Four Points Insurance Company Ltd. is the insurer and may be expressed in this policy as “we”, “our” and “us”.

Stratford Underwriting Agency Inc. is the managing general agent that has been engaged by the insurer to sell, issue and administer this policy and for which receives commission income. Stratford acts, in all cases, on the insurer's behalf. Notice to Stratford is deemed notice to the insurer. Stratford Underwriting Agency Inc. may be expressed as “Stratford” in this policy.

Your broker is Stratford's intermediary who will provide you with all the information and assistance you require about your policy. Your broker's contact information is located on your Declaration of Insurance.

When you receive your policy

Make sure the information is correct. Please check the information you have given your broker and notify your broker of any changes or corrections. This is an important part of your responsibility to provide complete and accurate information under Section 75 of the Insurance (Vehicle) Act.

Free look period. If you have not made a claim, you can cancel this policy within 10 days of the effective date and receive a full refund of the premium you have paid.

How Your Premium is Calculated. The amount of your premium is determined by taking several different factors into account. It is important for you to know that the premium varies depending on the information Stratford receives about your vehicle and drivers.

Examples of factors which may affect your premium include the years driving experience, the vehicle type, where the vehicle is kept, how it is used, or the history of previous accidents or claims or convictions/penalty points for both you and other drivers.

Changing your policy

Change of Circumstances. You must advise your broker immediately when your circumstances change, if they are relevant to your policy. For instance, if you change principal driver or start allowing an occasional operator with less than ten years experience to drive, or move. If you do not tell your broker of your changes, in the event of you suffering a loss or damage, you may not be adequately insured to cover your loss, or you may not even have any coverage under your policy.

However, if you replace your vehicle with another, your replacement vehicle automatically has the same cover as this policy for 10 days from the purchase date, but not exceeding the market value or the purchase price, whichever is lower.

Please note there will be no payment required for premium changes less than $5.00

Renewing the Policy. To ensure continuing protection Stratford will normally send you a renewal offer at least 20 days before the renewal date of this policy. It will show the premium and coverage for the new policy term and may also include notice of any changes to the terms of this policy.

When you receive a renewal offer, you must tell your broker if the information contained in it is incorrect or incomplete. If you do not tell your broker, it may impact any future claims.

If you wish to accept the renewal offer on the monthly premium plan you will not have to do anything, Stratford will automatically withdraw the renewal premium from your account. Otherwise, please contact your broker to arrange payment.

If Stratford does not offer to renew your policy, you will be sent a notice of non-renewal in advance of the current policy expiry date to your last known address.

Cancelling the Policy. You may cancel the policy at any time. If you cancel this policy within 10 days of the effective date and no claim is made (free look period) you will receive a full refund of the premium you have paid.

If you cancel outside the free look period and no claim is made and you have paid the annual premium, Stratford will refund any premium you have paid for the period after the cancellation date. If you paid your premium by instalment on the monthly premium plan, any refund or premium due will be adjusted on the next scheduled instalment. There is a minimum premium refund when you cancel or change your policy; the amount is $10.00 if you paid your premium by instalment on the monthly premium plan and $5.00 for other payment types.

If Stratford cancels your policy either due to non-payment of premium due or if you fail to meet your obligations under the policy, Stratford will refund what is left of the premium you have paid and will send you a notice of the cancellation to your last known address, and as required by law.

How to Make A Claim. You and any person involved in an accident or loss under this policy must notify Stratford promptly by calling your claims adjuster at 1-833-222-9981 or locally in the Greater Vancouver area 604-282-0671, after any loss or damage regardless of who is at fault.

In addition to notifying Stratford of your loss or damage, immediately send Stratford any communication received from other parties including if you have been made aware of any legal action, in relation to the loss or damage.

If your vehicle is stolen or theft has been attempted or vandalized, notify the police as soon as you are made aware of the incident.

Section 1: Introduction

1.1 What insurance is required by law?

Basic insurance coverage is required by law if you own and operate a vehicle on a highway in British Columbia. It is available from the Insurance Corporation of British Columbia (ICBC) and may be expressed in this policy as an “Owner’s Certificate”. You have decided to buy this Optional insurance policy for additional insurance to protect yourself against certain risks not covered by mandatory ICBC Basic insurance.

1.2 This Policy Wording is Part of a Contract

This policy wording is part of a contract between you and us. The contract includes three documents:

- a completed and signed Application of Insurance, and
- a completed Declaration of Insurance, and
- this policy wording.

Under the contract, we agree to provide you with the insurance that is summarized on your Declaration of Insurance, and for which you have agreed to pay a premium.

1.3 Where You Are Covered

This policy covers you and other insured persons for incidents occurring in Canada and the United States of America, and on a vessel travelling between ports of those countries. All dollar limits described in this policy are in Canadian funds.

1.4 Definitions

Covered/Coverage

When we talk of someone or something being covered, we mean that they are protected by insurance. When we speak of coverage, we are describing what types of protection they have and how much for each type.

You have a specific coverage only if your Declaration of Insurance shows a premium for it or shows the coverage is provided at no cost. If you have insured more than one vehicle, a premium must be shown for each vehicle.

Declaration of Insurance

A Declaration of Insurance is a written document summarizing your insurance coverage. It shows your name and/or organization, and the described vehicle or vehicles. It lists the coverages purchased, premiums charged, and the period during which the insurance is in effect.

Named Insured

The named insured is the person or organization to whom the Declaration of Insurance is issued.

Occupant

In this policy, an occupant is a person, including the driver, in or on a vehicle, or getting into, on, out of, or off a vehicle.

Proof of Loss Form

A proof of loss form records the formal statement concerning a loss for which a claim is submitted. It provides us with all the information we need to determine whether the claim is reasonable and the extent of our liability.

Spouse

Your spouse means a person who:

- is married to you and who lives with you, or
- is living with you in a marriage-like relationship,
 - continuously for a period of not less than one year, or
 - in a relationship of some permanence with you, if you both are the natural or adoptive parents of a child.

Vehicle

In this policy, there is a difference between a described vehicle and the vehicle.

When we refer to the vehicle, we mean:

Vehicle Type	Definition
Described vehicle	A described vehicle is any vehicle, motorcycle, motorhome or trailer specifically shown on your Declaration of Insurance.
Newly acquired vehicle	A newly acquired vehicle is a vehicle or trailer that you acquire as owner and that is not covered under any other policy. It can be either a replacement or an additional vehicle.
Temporary substitute vehicle	A temporary substitute vehicle is a vehicle that is temporarily used while a described vehicle is out of service. The described vehicle must not be in use by anyone insured by this policy, because of its breakdown, repair, servicing, theft, sale or destruction.
Other vehicles	Other vehicles are vehicles that you or your spouse rent, borrow or drive, with the permission of the owner or lessee. These are not owned or leased by you and nor are they the above vehicle types.
Trailer	A trailer is not described, either owned or unowned, used in connection with the vehicle.

We and You

Throughout this policy the words you and your refer to the person or organization shown on the Declaration of Insurance as the named insured.

Other people may also be covered under certain conditions. We call both them and you insured persons.

We, our and us mean Four Points Insurance Company Ltd.

1.5 Your Responsibilities Include

"Under section 75 of the Insurance (Vehicle) Act, your claim is invalid if at any time you fail to provide complete and accurate information, violate a term or condition of your policy or commit fraud. This is a summary. For full information, see section 75 of the Insurance (Vehicle) Act."

1.5.1 You will notify us within 10 days after:

- any change to your address as described in the Declaration of Insurance; or
- if you acquire a substitute vehicle for the described vehicle.

1.5.2 You will inform us before:

- changing the use of the described vehicle as shown in the Declaration of Insurance,
- changing the garaged location in which the described vehicle is kept when it is not being driven, or
- installing any of the features, software, modifications, or equipment listed in Section 1.7.5.

Coverage under this policy is based on the same rate class, vehicle use and garaged location for the described vehicle that you declare for mandatory ICBC Basic insurance. You must correctly declare this information to ICBC and to us.

1.5.3 You will promptly notify us of any significant change of which you are aware in your status as a driver, owner or lessee of the described vehicle.

1.5.4 If you have purchased Optional Loss or Damage Coverages, you agree to inform us of any new lien (an interest by others), mortgage or loan that encumbers a described vehicle, as well as any other insurance against loss or damage.

1.5.5 When you are involved in an auto accident involving injury or property damage, you need to report it to us promptly, regardless of who is at fault.

1.5.6 You agree not to drive or operate the vehicle or allow anyone else to drive or operate the vehicle, when not authorized and qualified by law to operate the vehicle.

1.5.7 You agree not to use or allow anyone to use the vehicle in a race or speed test, to escape or avoid arrest or other similar police action, or for an illicit or prohibited trade or transportation.

1.5.8 You agree to permit us to inspect the vehicle and its equipment at all reasonable times.

1.5.9 You will at all times have and maintain a valid Owner's Certificate respecting the described vehicle.

1.6 Our Rights and Responsibilities

1.6.1 Payment of Claims

We will pay legitimate claims within 60 days of receiving a proof of loss or statutory declaration. If we refuse to pay a claim, we will notify you in writing explaining the reasons why we are not liable to pay.

If an arbitration is conducted under section 177 of the Insurance (Vehicle) Regulation, we must pay within 15 days after the award is rendered.

1.6.2 If You Have Been Incorrectly Classified and Your Premium is Wrong

Stratford applies rules that determine the amount you pay for each coverage and category of vehicle insurance. You are classified according to these rules. If you have been incorrectly classified, Stratford will correct the situation. If the incorrect classification resulted in your paying too high a premium, Stratford will refund any premium overpayment.

If Stratford incorrectly classified you and it resulted in your paying an inadequate premium, Stratford will require you to pay an additional premium as long as Stratford or its broker advises you of the correct payment amount within 30 days of the effective date of the policy. We will not charge you interest on the additional premium.

1.7 Who and What We Won't Cover

1.7.1 Excluded Use

There is no coverage under this policy if:

- the vehicle is used to carry explosives or radioactive material,
- the described vehicle, newly acquired vehicle, or temporary substitute vehicle is used as a taxicab, bus or sightseeing conveyance, or used to carry passengers or goods for compensation or hire. However, we don't consider the following as situations involving carrying passengers for compensation:

 - occasionally carrying children to or from school activities that are conducted within an educational program,

- the described vehicle, newly acquired vehicle, or temporary substitute vehicle is shared through a peer-to-peer car sharing service, rented, or leased by you to another. However, we don't consider insured persons using the vehicle for an employer's business and being paid for using it as renting.

1.7.2 Illegal and Prohibited Use

There is no coverage for insured persons under this policy that:

- do not at all times have and maintain a valid Owner's Certificate respecting the described vehicle(s),
- breaches any condition of or in any manner forfeits the insurance coverage extended by ICBC under the Owner's Certificate respecting the described vehicle(s),

 - 4.3(6): Improperly registered and licensed trailers,
 - 4.3(7): Lending the vehicle to others who violate 4.3,

 - 4.3(9)(a): Driving under the influence of intoxicating substances, and
 - 4.3(9)(b) and 4.3(10): Circumstances where you or other insured persons are convicted of a motor vehicle related offence under the Criminal Code (Canada), the Youth Criminal Justice Act (Canada), the Motor Vehicle Act or any similar offence under any law in Canada or the United States, including:
 - Murder,
 - Attempted murder,

- Manslaughter,
- Dangerous operation,
- Operation while impaired,
- Failure to stop after an accident, and
- Operation while prohibited.

1.7.3 Excluded Drivers and Driving Without Permission

There is no coverage (including coverage for occupants) under this policy if the vehicle is used or operated by a person in possession of the vehicle without the owner's consent or is driven by an excluded class of persons or drivers of the vehicle policy or a person who, at the time he or she willingly becomes an occupant of a vehicle, knows or ought reasonably to know that the vehicle is being used or operated by a person in possession of the vehicle without the owner's consent.

There is no coverage under this policy for a person who, at the time he or she willingly becomes an occupant of a vehicle, knows or ought reasonably to know that the vehicle is being used or operated by a person in possession of the vehicle without the owner's consent.

1.7.4 Garage Workers Not Covered

No person who sells, repairs, maintains, stores, services, or parks vehicles as part of a business is covered by this policy while involved in conducting that business, unless the person in fact owns the vehicle involved in an incident or is the partner or employee of the owner.

1.7.5 Excluded Features, Software, Modifications and Equipment

There is no coverage for vehicles under this policy that have the following features, software, modifications, or equipment attached:

- Aftermarket superchargers,
- Aftermarket turbochargers,
- Armour or bulletproofing,

- Nitrous systems,
- Purchased software upgrades that increase the rate of acceleration, and
- Tires designed for racing or speed.

Section 2: Excess Liability Coverage

You have a particular coverage for a specific vehicle only if your Declaration of Insurance shows a premium for it or shows the coverage is provided at no cost.

2.1 Introduction

This Section of your policy provides Excess Liability Coverage for amounts that the law holds you or other insured persons responsible for compensatory damages for bodily injuries to or the death of any person, or property damages others suffer in a vehicle accident. This coverage only applies as excess to valid, enforceable, Basic liability coverage from ICBC under an Owner's Certificate respecting the vehicle.

2.2 Who is Covered

You are covered when you or others in possession of a described vehicle use or operate it with your consent. We will consider these other people insured persons.

2.3 What We Cover

You or other insured persons may be legally responsible for the bodily injury to, or death of others, or for damage to the property of others as a result of owning, leasing or operating a described vehicle. In these cases, we will make any payment on account of compensatory damages on your or other insured persons' behalf that the law requires in excess of the limits of the Basic third party liability coverage from ICBC under an Owner's Certificate, subject to the limits, terms and conditions of this policy.

We will also reimburse anyone covered by this policy for reasonable costs involved in providing immediate medical aid needed by someone hurt in a vehicle incident, where reimbursement is not provided under another policy.

When we receive notice of loss or damage caused to persons or property we will investigate. We may then negotiate a settlement on behalf of you or other insured persons.

2.3.1 If Someone Sues You

By accepting this policy, you and other insured persons irrevocably appoint us to act on your or their behalf in any lawsuit against you or them in Canada or the United States of America arising out of the ownership, leasing or operation of a described vehicle. We have the right to settle any claim out of court if we choose.

If you or other insured persons are sued for damages arising from the ownership, leasing or operation of a described vehicle, you must comply with all requirements of the third party liability coverage afforded by ICBC pursuant to the Owner's Certificate respecting the vehicle. Under that coverage, ICBC is obliged to assume the defence of that lawsuit on your and any other insured persons' behalf. We have the right and duty to investigate, settle and join with you and ICBC in the defence and control of any claim or lawsuit against you or any other insured person which based on our investigation of the facts, involves damages that exceed the limits of third party liability coverage afforded by ICBC pursuant to the Owner's Certificate respecting a described vehicle.

If you are sued for more than the limits of your policy, you may wish to hire, at your cost, your own lawyer to protect yourself against the additional risk.

2.3.2 How Much We Will Pay

The most we will pay under this Excess Liability Coverage on account of compensatory damages on behalf of your and any other insured persons' behalf for any one accident will in aggregate be the limit of coverage shown on the Declaration of Insurance. In addition, we will also pay the following amounts:

- a proportionate amount of the costs of defending any lawsuit of the sort referred to in section 2.3.1 (ICBC will pay the balance), and
- any pre-judgment and post-judgment interest payable by you or the other insured persons on that part of any judgment granted against you or them which falls within the Excess Liability Coverage available under this policy.

2.3.3 Outside British Columbia

We also agree not to use any legal defence that would not be available if the policy had been issued in another Canadian province or territory or any jurisdiction in the United States of America.

2.3.4 If There is More Than One Named Insured Under This Policy

We will protect you and other named insureds by this policy, for claims made against each of you. In such cases, we will act as if a separate policy was issued to each named insured. However, the total amount we will pay (over and above legal costs and post-judgment interest) cannot exceed the maximum coverage shown on the Declaration of Insurance.

2.4 Liability We Won't Cover

2.4.1 Property Not Covered

Under this Section, we won't cover claims for damage to property carried in or upon a described vehicle or claims for damage to other property owned or rented by, or in the care, custody or control of you or other insured persons.

2.4.2 Contamination of Property

Under this Section, we won't cover claims arising from contamination of property carried in the vehicle.

2.5 Additional Benefits

2.5.1 Newly Acquired Vehicles

Excess Liability Coverage is extended to include liability caused by newly acquired vehicles, both replacement vehicles and additional vehicles. The replacement vehicle will have the same coverage as the described vehicle it replaces.

We will cover an additional vehicle as long as we insure all vehicles you own for Excess Liability Coverage.

Your newly acquired vehicle(s) will be insured as long as you inform us within 10 days from the time of delivery and pay any additional premium required.

2.5.2 Temporary Substitute Vehicles

Excess Liability Coverage is extended to include liability caused by temporary substitute vehicles, with the same coverage as the described vehicle it temporarily replaces.

2.5.3 Other Vehicles

Excess Liability Coverage is extended to include liability caused by other vehicles that you or your spouse rent, borrow or drive, with the permission of the owner or lessee, with the same coverage as the described vehicle.

Coverage does not extend to vehicles in these circumstances:

- Any of the exclusions and prohibitions defined by section 1.7 of this policy, including vehicles used to carry passengers or goods for compensation or hire,
- Vehicles rented under a rental agreement for a period exceeding thirty (30) days,
- Vehicles rented exclusively for the use of non-Canadian residents,
- Vehicles owned by you, your spouse or a person residing in the same dwelling premises as an insured person,
- Vehicles owned, rented or leased by your employer or the employer of anyone living in your dwelling premises,
- Vehicles with a registered Gross Vehicle Weight (GVW) rating of more than the greater of 5,000 kilograms and the registered GVW rating of the described vehicle,
- Vehicles that require a commercial license,
- Motor assisted cycles, motorized devices, and
- Vehicles that are snowmobiles, snow vehicles, golf carts, restricted use motorcycles (RUMs), all-terrain vehicles and trucksters.

Coverage does extend to vehicles used to carry passengers or goods for compensation or hire when the vehicle is not being used for such purposes at the time of the loss.

If a liability claim is made against a driver, renter or owner of a rented vehicle, coverage may be available under more than one vehicle liability policy. The following rules govern the order in which the policies will respond, and the Excess Liability Coverage will respond only as required in excess of the following:

1. If other valid and collectible insurance is available to the person who rented the vehicle, the policy providing that insurance responds first.
2. If insurance is available to the driver of the rented vehicle, the policy providing that insurance responds next.
3. If insurance is available to the owner of the rented vehicle, the policy providing that insurance responds last.

2.5.4 Trailers

Excess Liability Coverage is extended to include any trailer used in connection with the vehicle.

Section 3: Loss or Damage Coverages

You have a particular coverage for a specific vehicle only if your Declaration of Insurance shows a premium for it or shows the coverage is provided at no cost.

3.1 Introduction

Coverage for Loss of or Damage to Your Vehicle

We agree to pay for direct and accidental loss of, or damage to, a described vehicle caused by a peril such as fire, theft, or collision if the vehicle is insured against these perils.

By direct loss or damage, we mean loss of, or damage resulting directly from a peril for which coverage has been purchased.

We may inspect the described vehicle and its equipment at any reasonable time. If you do not co-operate with any reasonable arrangements for inspection, your coverages under this Section may be cancelled and any claims under this Section may be denied.

3.2 What We Cover

Coverage Options

You may choose one or both of the two types of protection listed below. Your choices will be shown on the Declaration of Insurance.

A. Comprehensive Coverage - we will pay for losses, other than those covered by Collision Coverage, including:

- fire,
- theft or attempted theft,
- lightning, windstorm, hail, or rising water,
- earthquake,
- explosion,
- riot or civil disturbance,
- falling or forced landing of aircraft or parts of aircraft,
- stranding, sinking, burning, derailment or collision of any kind of transport in, or upon which a described vehicle is being carried on land or water,
- falling or flying objects,
- missiles,
- impact with an animal, and
- vandalism.

B. Collision Coverage - we will pay for losses caused by upset of a described vehicle or when a described vehicle is involved in a collision with another object. Object includes:

- another vehicle that is attached to the vehicle,
- the surface of the ground, and
- any object in or on the ground.

3.3 Loss or Damage We Won't Cover

3.3.1 General

We will not cover the following losses unless they result from a peril for which you are covered or they are caused by fire, theft or vandalism and your policy covers these perils:

- to tires,
- consisting of, or caused by mechanical fracture or breakdown of any part of the vehicle, or
- consisting of, or caused by rusting, corrosion, wear and tear, freezing, or explosion within the engine,
- rot or mold or the repeated or constant exposure to rot or mold.

We won't pay for loss or damage:

- resulting from a dishonest claim of ownership,
- arising from stranding (other than the stranding in, or upon which a described vehicle is being carried on land or water), impoundment or illegal disposal,
- resulting from a change in ownership that is agreed to, even if that change was brought about by trickery or fraud,

Example

You are selling your car to a stranger in return for a cheque. A week later the cheque bounces. We will not cover the loss.

- caused directly or indirectly by radioactive contamination,
- caused directly or indirectly by bombardment, invasion, civil war, insurrection, rebellion, revolution, military or usurped power, or by operation of armed forces while engaged in hostilities, whether war is declared or not.

3.3.2 Certain Thefts Not Covered

We won't pay under the Comprehensive coverage for loss or damage caused when:

- a person who lives in your household steals the vehicle,
- your employee steals the vehicle and the employee's duties include driving, maintaining or repairing the vehicle. This applies at any time and not simply during working hours, or
- anyone steals the vehicle who has legal possession of it under a written agreement (a mortgage, conditional sale, lease or other similar agreement).

3.3.3 The Deductible

The amount we pay to cover any losses may be subject to a deductible. The deductible is the amount you agree to pay toward the cost of any single claim you make for loss or damage to the vehicle. The deductible, if any, is shown on the Declaration of Insurance and specified where applicable in this policy.

You will need to make a separate claim for each incident that causes loss or damage. The deductible applies each time you make a claim and separately to each vehicle that is insured.

We will only pay for loss or damage that exceeds the amount of the deductible.

If the Declaration of Insurance shows a Comprehensive deductible of $300, the deductible amount for any claim for windshield damage by missile or falling object or flying object is $200.

Example

You have Comprehensive Coverage, and your deductible is $500. Your car's windshield is broken by a fallen tree. You are responsible for the first $500 of the cost of the windshield replacement. Any claim less than $500 will be your responsibility.

3.4 Additional Benefits

3.4.1 Payment of Charges

We will pay general average, salvage and fire department charges and any Canadian or U.S. customs duties for which you are legally responsible as a result of an insured peril.

In this instance, salvage means any expense involved in recovering property to prevent loss from an insured peril.

General average charges may arise when a described vehicle is shipped by water. If it becomes necessary to dump a portion of the ship's cargo overboard to save the ship, you may be legally responsible for a share of the resulting losses. We will cover that expense.

3.4.2 Foregoing Our Right to Recover

If someone else is using a described vehicle with your permission when an insured loss occurs, we will pay for the resulting claim. We will also forego our right to recover the money from that person.

However, we will retain the right to recover payment:

- if the person has the vehicle in connection with the business of selling, repairing, maintaining, storing, servicing or parking vehicles; or
- if the person using the vehicle violates a condition of this policy, including operating the vehicle in the circumstances referred to in Section 4 regarding prohibited use of the vehicle.

3.4.3 Newly Acquired Vehicles

Collision and Comprehensive Coverages are extended to include newly acquired vehicles, both replacement vehicles and additional vehicles. The replacement vehicle will have the same coverage as the described vehicle it replaces.

We will cover an additional vehicle as long as we insure all vehicles you own for the Collision or Comprehensive Coverage to which the insured peril belongs.

Your newly acquired vehicle(s) will be insured as long as you inform us within 10 days from the time of delivery and pay any additional premium required.

3.4.4 Temporary Substitute Vehicles

Collision and Comprehensive Coverages are extended to include temporary substitute vehicles, with the same coverage as the described vehicle it temporarily replaces.

If the owner of the substitute vehicle has it insured for such losses, and the deductible on that policy is larger than the one on this policy for such loss, the most we will pay will be the difference between the two deductibles.

If there is a disagreement over who is responsible for the damage, we have the right to settle the matter and we will cover the costs of any investigation, negotiation or lawsuit.

Example

You rent a car to replace your own, which is being repaired following an accident. While driving the rental car, you cause $800 worth of damage to it. The rental company has a collision policy with a $1,000 deductible. The Collision deductible in your policy is only $500. In settling the matter, we will pay $300 ($800 less $500).

3.4.5 Loss of Use

Comprehensive Coverage is extended whereby if the described vehicle is stolen, we will pay for the reasonable expenses incurred by you for alternative transportation, to a maximum of $900 per occurrence.

This coverage begins after the theft has been reported to Stratford and the Police.

This coverage ends on the date that the vehicle is repaired or replaced, or the date we offer you a payment to settle the claim under the Comprehensive Coverage, whichever is the earliest.

Alternative transportation means:

- Renting a substitute vehicle, that is similar to the eligible vehicle, from an established vehicle rental company or an established car sharing platform,
- Passenger directed transportation through taxis or a ride sharing platform,
- Public transportation,
- Or using other alternative transportation with our prior approval.

This coverage excludes fuel cost and electricity charging cost of the alternative transportation.

For alternative transportation sourced through a car sharing platform:

- The most we will pay is for an equivalent vehicle that we can source through our own vendor, and
- The following exclusions apply:
 - Regarding pre-trip photos, there is no coverage:
 - For car share platforms that do not have a pre-trip photo upload feature on their smartphone app, that they make available to you,
 - If you do not take and upload pre-trip photos in accordance with your car share platform's pre-trip photo policies, guides and instructions, and
 - If your car share platform will not release those photos to us in the event of a claim.
 - Regarding vehicle maintenance, there is no coverage:
 - For car share platforms that do not enforce a vehicle maintenance policy that requires vehicle owners and lessors to get an annual vehicle safety inspection from a qualified mechanic,
 - If the rented vehicle was in breach of the car share platform's vehicle maintenance policy, including if the most recent annual vehicle safety inspection was more than a year old at the time of loss, and
 - If your car share platform will not release the most recent annual vehicle safety inspection report to us in the event of a claim.

A car share platform's rental agreement equivalent is documentary, replicable proof that a vehicle abiding by the platform's vehicle eligibility and maintenance policies has been rented to a named driver or drivers that meet the platform's driver eligibility rules for a duration bounded by agreed starting and ending dates and times.

3.4.6 Emergency Road Service

We will reimburse you upon presentation of receipts and acceptable evidence of loss, for towing and emergency service expense caused by disablement of the described vehicle to a maximum limit of $120.00 in any one policy term.

The following conditions apply:

- does not apply to a described vehicle with a vehicle age of six years or older,

- does not include the cost of parts or supplies, gasoline, oil, batteries or tires, and
- does not apply in respect of a temporary substitute vehicle.

Vehicle age means the policy effective year less the described vehicle's model year.

3.4.7 Lock Re-Keying or Re-Coding

Comprehensive Coverage is extended whereby if the described vehicle keys or transmitter are stolen and reported to the police and a police case number has been issued, we will pay for their replacement, and the re-keying or re-coding of the locks. There is no deductible for this coverage.

Payment is limited to a maximum of $1500 per policy term.

3.4.8 Theft and Fire Deductible Waiver

The Comprehensive deductible will be waived if there is a loss caused by fire, total theft or an attempted theft of the described vehicle.

If your described vehicle sustains loss or damage caused by fire, total theft or an attempted theft of the described vehicle, the Comprehensive deductible set out in the Declaration of Insurance is waived.

The following conditions apply:

- the waiver provided does not apply in respect of a temporary substitute vehicle,
- if loss or damage is a result of attempted theft there must be obvious signs of the attempted theft of the described vehicle,
- if your vehicle is stolen or theft has been attempted, notify the police and obtain a police case number as soon as you are made aware of the incident.

3.4.9 Hit and Run

- the names of both the owner and the driver of that other vehicle are not ascertainable, or
- the name of the driver of that vehicle is not ascertainable and its owner is not liable to an action for damages for the said loss or damage.

The deductible is the greater of $750 and the Collision deductible shown on the Declaration of Insurance.

3.4.10 Excess Basic Vehicle Damage Coverage Covered

Collision Coverage is extended to include the excess loss or damage value exceeding the limit prescribed by Division 2 of Part 3 of the Basic Vehicle Damage Coverage Regulation.

If you are entitled to Basic Vehicle Damage Coverage from ICBC or another insurer with respect to an accident under another certificate or a policy, we will pay Excess Basic Vehicle Damage Coverage under this policy but only the portion that exceeds the sum of the limits of coverage under the other certificates and policies and excluding any loss of use.

provides coverage shall be primary to the coverage provided under this policy, whether such coverage is stated to be primary, contingent or excess.

When making a claim under this Section, you and other insured persons must:

- promptly notify Stratford of the incident, giving Stratford the best information available at that time concerning the loss or damage and circumstances,
- do as much as is reasonably possible to protect the vehicle from further damage. We will pay for any reasonable protection provided. Further damage resulting from failure to provide reasonable protection will not be covered by this policy,

3.6 Our Right to Repair, Replace or Rebuild the Vehicle

We have the right to repair, replace or rebuild the vehicle rather than pay for the damage. If we choose to do this, we reserve the right to conclude the work despite unforeseen costs that may arise. Unforeseen costs include parts price changes, the emergence of hidden damage, and any post-repair requirement to scan, calibrate or reset a system. We will complete the work within a reasonable time using parts of similar kind and quality.

3.7 What We Will Pay

We will not pay more for the vehicle than its actual cash value, after taking into account depreciation, at the time it was damaged or stolen, less the deductible shown on your Declaration of Insurance or specified in this policy as applicable.

With respect to Section 3.6, we will pay the lower of the following:

- the cost to repair the loss or damage, less the deductible,
- replace the motor vehicle or any part of it, and its equipment, with similar kind and quality, less the deductible, or
- the actual cash value of the vehicle at the time it was damaged or stolen, less the deductible.

Section 5: Endorsements That Extend Coverage

You have a particular coverage for a specific vehicle only if your Declaration of Insurance shows a premium for it or shows the coverage is provided at no cost.

All other terms and conditions of your policy remain the same.

5.1 Carry Passengers for Compensation

Permission is given for the vehicle to be used to carry passengers for compensation such as rideshare or hire in the business of or for the use described on the Declaration of Insurance when commercial insurance is in effect when the vehicle is transporting passengers for compensation.

Limitations on Your Coverage:

- There is no coverage for you or other insured persons, if you do not at all times have and maintain a valid Owner's Certificate respecting the described vehicle(s) and the use of the vehicle.
- Coverage only applies when the vehicle is not available to carry passengers for compensation or available to accept passengers for compensation, but not carrying passengers.
- This coverage does not apply while the vehicle is carrying passengers for compensation.

5.2 Emergency Road Service

Section 3.4.6 is extended to include a described vehicle of any vehicle age.

5.3 Extended Equipment

Section 3.4.11 is extended to a maximum aggregate value of the extended equipment amount shown on your Declaration of Insurance. All claims under this extension are subject to the applicable deductible.

5.4 Extended Loss of Use

For Section 8 packages shown on your Declaration of Insurance, their loss of use limits are extended to include the Extended Loss of Use amount shown on your Declaration of Insurance.

When no Section 8 packages are shown on your Declaration of Insurance:

- Section 3.4.5 is extended to all insured perils of the Comprehensive Coverage and Collision Coverage to a maximum limit of the Extended Loss of Use amount shown on your Declaration of Insurance.
- If the described vehicle is stolen, Section 3.4.5 is extended to a greater of the maximum limit of the amount specified in Section 3.4.5 and the Extended Loss of Use amount shown on your Declaration of Insurance.

Loss of use paid out under Division 2 of Part 3 of the Basic Vehicle Damage Coverage Regulation is extended to include the Extended Loss of Use amount shown on your Declaration of Insurance.

5.5 Gap Protection

Gap insurance provides you with financial protection if your vehicle is written off after an insured accident or theft. The actual cash value may not cover the cost to pay off your car loan, creating a gap. Gap protection ensures you don't pay for this gap out of pocket.

What We Will Pay: In the event of a total loss of the described vehicle as a result of loss or damage caused by an insured peril, we will pay the outstanding financed amount at the time it was damaged or stolen less:

- The settlement amount of any replacement cost or limited waiver of depreciation policies or endorsements,
- Any loan balances owed from previous contracts that were added to the described vehicle's financing or loan contract balance owing, and
- The settlement amount determined by Section 3.7.

5.6 Limited Waiver of Depreciation

This endorsement removes our right to deduct depreciation from the value of your vehicle when settling a claim for loss or damage.

What We Will Pay: We will remove our right under section 4.9 of your policy, "What We Will Pay" to deduct depreciation from the value of your vehicle for loss or damage caused by a peril for which you are insured under section 4 "Loss or Damage Coverages". This coverage is subject to the deductible shown on your Declaration of Insurance.

The most we will pay is the lowest of the following amounts:

- The actual purchase price of the vehicle and its equipment,
- The manufacturer's suggested list price of the vehicle and its equipment on the original date of purchase, or
- The cost of replacing the vehicle with a new vehicle of the same make and model, similarly equipped.

These amounts include all applicable taxes.

Limitations on Your Coverage: The loss or damage must occur before the expiry date of the policy.
